

Brief Profile of Prof Mahadeo Jaiswal

Dr Mahadeo Jaiswal is currently Director of Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Sambalpur and also Professor of Information Systems. Prior to this he was Professor and Dean at MDI, Gurgaon. His qualifications include PGPM from MIT Sloan School of Management, USA, PhD in Computer Science from Delhi University and Sr. Fulbright Fellow from Carnegie Mellon University, USA. He has been Visiting Professor at IIM Ahmedabad and IIM Indore. His area of expertise includes Innovation Strategy for Start-ups, Digital Innovation & Platform Eco Systems, Social Entrepreneurship, e-Government, ERP and IT Strategy. He has published more than 50 research papers and Cases in international journal and He is author of 7 books in Information Systems and Business Process Management.

He is member of several expert committees of Government and Industry including Indian Railways, India Post, CII and Transparency International. He has been engaged as Management Consultant for several large organizations such as Coal India Ltd (CIL), Steel Authority of India Ltd (SAIL), POWERGRID, Rural Electrification Corporation, NTPC-SAIL, Asian Development Bank, SJVN Ltd., HP Power Generation/Distribution/Transmission, Cochin International Airport, etc.

He was associated in developing Capability Maturity Model (CMM) for IT and ITES at Carnegie Mellon University, USA during 2004-5 and was Visiting Professor at Rotterdam Business School, NL during 2001-3 where he developed e-Business simulation game as part of European Union funded large research project. He drafted policy document on "ICT Strategy for Indian Manufacturing Competitiveness" for DIIP, Government of India. He is member of expert committee on Modernization of Indian Railways, GOI. He is member of CII committee on Responsible Business and Ethics.