

Advertisement for the post of Research Assistant at IIM Sambalpur

There is a requirement for a Research Assistant to provide support to the research work in the field of healthcare project on 'Control of thalassemia and sickle cell disease in Odisha' supported by CMC, Vellore. This is as per the project requirement and approved by CMC, Vellore.

The location would be Indian Institute of Management Sambalpur, Jyoti Vihar, Burla and requires intermittent field visits around Odisha. The position is purely contractual in nature and is for a period of 4 months, extendable for a month based on requirement.

Responsibilities: We are looking for a self-motivated, highly active and productive researcher, who will be expected to do the following:

- Assist faculties with their research experiments
- Primary data collection including focussed group discussion (FGD)
- Transcription of recorded data to text files
- Report preparation

Qualifications, Experience & Skill Requirements:

- Masters in the areas related to Bioinformatics or Life Science or Biotechnology with a strong interest in applying the experimental research method.
- Current PhD scholar in the above field, especially those who have completed their course work and are ready to multitask and be part of an interdisciplinary cohort are welcome to apply.
- A very good written and oral command of the English and Odia language is required.
- Know-how related to Odisha is desirable as it demands survey.
- At least one journal publication is desirable.

Age: Max. 30 years as on the last date of application.

Compensation: Compensation will be commensurate with the qualification and experience.

Last date to apply: November 24, 2021

Mode of Application: Interested candidates may apply for the position by sending their detailed resume, through email to the following: researchoffice@iimsambalpur.ac.in

Please clearly mention 'Application for Research Assistant- Health Project' in the subject

Requirement is immediate, and interviews will be held preferably in online mode. Shortlisted candidates only, will be informed of the interview.